Dr. Nimarjeet Kaur, a PCOS specialist graced the occasion and spoke about lifestyle changes to deal with this condition. The session received enormous participation and overwhelming response from the students and faculty. Some students shared their own struggle with this condition. We concluded the session with some key learnings, most important being that there should be no stigma attached to such topics but should be discussed openly to spread awareness and thus solving the very purpose of this session.

MARITAL RAPE: 2nd May, 2022

The theme for this year's student teacher symposium was Marital Rape Thesis, Antithesis and Synthesis. It was held on 2nd May, 2022. Gender Justice is a global issue and keeping that in mind, the symposium discussed various facets of the theme. The Feminists have rightly said – Personal is Political; keeping this in mind the issues of importance to women should be brought to the fore. The symposium made a small effort in bringing to light some issues that concern the women of our country
